All the spice on MICE

Dewan Worldwide Holidays after making a mark as one of the finest professional travel company specializing in custom tours of all kinds is now slowly scripting another success story with Corporates. With its MICE Tours (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences and Events), Dewan Worldwide Holidays is now presenting an exclusive experience in way few others can't because we have matchless tour knowledge garnered by exclusively serving in this niche service space over the last 22 action-packed years.

When it comes to MICE PROGRAMS (Meetings, Incentives, Conferences and Events) your company's goal is mostly to improve corporate performance through sales, employee or performance recognition driven incentive program. A well-executed incentive program enables an organization to achieve critical goals by rewarding staff with compensation directly linked to performance, orienting staff towards goal achievement while motivating staff to improve performance.

MICE Management by Dewan

At Dewan we understand that MICE events are about making the right impression and building relationships – both internal and external. It's an opportunity for your organization to offer a unique voice in an atmosphere where everyone is excited and emotional, giving you the platform to accomplish your goals – open doors, retain business or close the deal, or for internal events, to build upon your culture.

From product launches, special dinners or sporting events to press launches and award evenings, our goal is to maximize your return on investment. To us, it's all in the detail. For you, it's all in the result.

Here's just an example of the services we provide amidst our end-to-end solutions...
